1. COURSE UNIT DETAILS

1.1. UNIT NAME

Enterprise Systems – Deployment Management

1.2. NOMINAL DURATION AND WEIGHTING

6 Weeks
6 Credit Units
4% of Course

2 PRE-REQUISITES

Nil

3 COURSE UNIT PURPOSE

This course develops a framework for the delivery of integrated ERP platforms within a business. It covers core concepts of ERP design and function, organization and change management, and tailored project management capabilities that in combination can be used to achieve an effective solution delivery, and avoid costly failure.

4 OUTCOMES

On completion of this course students will develop a framework of understanding on the planning, construction and successful delivery of an ERP project.

5 CONTENT

Week 1 - Introduction to ERP: Concepts, Benefits, and Structures

Week 2 - Organization/Business Case Development

Week 3 – Project and Change Management

Week 4 - Assessment and Design

Week 5 - Configuration, Development and Testing

Week 6 - Deployment Planning and Implementation
6 ASSESSMENT

Students are assessed on the basis of the following:

- Five homework assignments 70%
- Examination 30%

7 DELIVERY OF THE COURSE UNITS

7.1 DELIVERY STRATEGY

Course delivery is focussed on face to face instruction and independent research.

7.2 ACADEMIC AND GENERAL RESOURCE REQUIREMENTS

TBA