

Carnegie Mellon University Heinz College

INFORMATION SYSTEMS • PUBLIC POLICY • MANAGEMENT

Heinz College prepares students with skills at the intersection of policy, technology and management, skills in high demand today. Students are immersed in learning how technology, data science and management science shape the practice and redefine the missions of organizations, governments and businesses worldwide. Opportunities to support Heinz College students include:

Heinz College Annual Fund

Help sustain the vital day-to-day operations of Heinz College and allow the college's leadership to address the most pressing needs of the college, students and faculty.

W.W. Cooper Scholarship Fund

Provide merit scholarships to talented students across Heinz College's academic programs. Established in 1975 by alumni, the endowed scholarship fund honors the college's founding dean.

Hamburg Hall Expansion and Renovation Fund

Hamburg Hall is adding nearly 20,000 square feet to provide the space necessary to educate future leaders at the intersection of technology, public policy and management.
