This paper is part of a larger research project, China's Great Transformation: Origins, Mechanisms, and Consequences of the Post-Reform Economic Boom. We are grateful to the project editors, Loren Brandt and Thomas Rawski, and to participants at the University of Toronto and University of Pittsburgh conferences on China's economic transition for comments and suggestions. We particularly thank Yasheng Huang and Barry Naughton for detailed comments on an earlier draft. The views expressed herein are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily reflect the views of the National Bureau of Economic Research.
